IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF UTAH, CENTRAL DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	:	Case No. 2:04CR 0450JTG

Plaintiff,	:
vs.	:	STATEMENT BY DEFENDANT IN
	:	ADVANCE OF PLEA OF GUILTY
MARK RICHARD PATRICK,	:
	:	Honorable J. Thomas Greene
Defendant.	:

I hereby acknowledge and certify that I have been advised of and that I understand the following facts and rights, and that I have had the assistance of counsel in reviewing, explaining and completing this form:

1. The nature of the charge against me has been explained. I have had an opportunity to discuss the nature of the charge with my attorney. I understand the charge and what the government is required to prove in order to convict me.

2. I know that the maximum possible penalty provided by law for Count I, a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2422(b) (Coercion and Enticement for Illegal Sexual Activity), is a term of imprisonment of not less than 5 years, and up to 30 years, a fine of $250,000.00, and a term of supervised release of up to life. I understand that if the supervised release term is violated, I can be returned to prison for the remainder of my sentence and the full length of the supervised release term. Additionally, I know the court is required to impose an assessment in the amount of $100.00 and that restitution to the victims of my offense shall be ordered pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3663A.

3. I know that the sentencing procedures in this case, and the ultimate sentence, will be determined pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, and I have discussed these facts with my attorney. I further know that the final calculation by the Court for sentencing purposes under the procedures applicable to that Act may differ from any calculation the United States, my attorney, or I may have made, and I will not be able to withdraw my plea in spite of that fact.

4. I know that I can be represented by an attorney at every stage of the proceeding, and I know that if I cannot afford an attorney, one will be appointed to represent me.

5. I know that I have a right to plead "Not Guilty," and I know that if I do plead "Not Guilty," I can persist in that plea.

6. I know that I have a right to a trial by jury, and I know that if I stand trial by a jury:

(a) I have a right to the assistance of counsel at every stage of the proceeding.

(b) I have a right to see and observe the witnesses who testify against me.

(c) My attorney can cross-examine all witnesses who testify against me.

(d) I can call the witnesses I want to call, and I can obtain subpoenas to require the attendance and testimony of those witnesses. If I cannot afford to pay for the appearance of a witness and mileage fees, the government will pay them.

(e) I cannot be forced to incriminate myself and I do not have to testify at any trial.

(f) If I do not want to testify, the jury will be told that no inference adverse to me may be drawn from my election not to testify.

(g) The government must prove each and every element of the offense charged against me beyond a reasonable doubt.

(h) It requires a unanimous verdict of a jury to convict me.

(i) If I were to be convicted, I could appeal, and if I could not afford to appeal, the government would pay the costs of the appeal, including the services of appointed counsel.

7. Under a plea of guilty, there will not be a trial of any kind.

8. I know I may appeal a sentence imposed under this plea of guilty in the following circumstances:

(a) If the sentence was imposed in violation of law;

(b) If the sentence was imposed as a result of an incorrect application of the Sentencing Guidelines;

(c) If the sentence is greater than the sentence specified in the applicable guideline range, to the extent that the sentence includes a greater fine or term of imprisonment, probation, or supervised release than the maximum established in the guideline range, or includes a more restrictive condition of probation or supervised release than those provided under 18 U.S.C. § 3563; or

(d) If the sentence was imposed for an offense for which there is no sentencing guideline and the sentence is plainly unreasonable.

9. I know there is no appellate review of any lawful sentence imposed under a plea of guilty.

10. I also know the United States may appeal a sentence imposed under this plea of guilty in the following circumstances:

(a) If the sentence was imposed in violation of law;

(b) If the sentence was imposed as a result of an incorrect application of the Sentencing Guidelines;

(c) If the sentence is less than the sentence specified in the applicable guideline range, to the extent that the sentence includes a lesser fine or term of imprisonment, probation, or supervised release other than the minimum established in the guideline range, or includes a less restrictive condition of probation or supervised release than those provided under 18 U.S.C. § 3563; or

(d) If the sentence was imposed for an offense for which there is no sentencing guideline and the sentence is plainly unreasonable.

11. I know that under a plea of guilty the judge may ask me questions under oath about the offense to which the plea is entered. The questions, if asked on the record and in the presence of counsel, must be answered by me and, if I give false answers, I can be prosecuted for perjury.

12. I stipulate and agree that the following facts accurately describe my conduct. They provide a basis for the Court to accept my guilty plea and for calculating the sentence in my case:

Between March 18th through March 21, 2004, in the District of Utah and elsewhere, Mark Richard Patrick used a facility of interstate commerce, that is, Yahoo! Instant Messaging and his computer, to communicate in an Internet chatroom with "chrissy_sue_1990," an individual the defendant believed was a 13 year old girl living in Utah. In reality, Patrick was in communication with an officer with the Salem City Police Department. During the course of the communications, Patrick knowingly and intentionally attempted to persuade, induce, entice, and coerce "chrissy_sue_1990" to engage in an unlawful sexual act. Utah Code Section 76-5-404.1 makes it a crime for a person to commit sexual abuse of a child. A person commits sexual abuse of a child if the actor engages in any sexual act upon or with a child who is younger than 14. The chatroom communications traveled from the defendant's computer in Utah, to a Yahoo! server in California and then to the agents' computer in Utah. Patrick's actions were in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2422(b).

13. This plea agreement is made pursuant to Rule 11(e)(1)(B) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The only terms and conditions pertaining to this plea agreement between the defendant and the United States are as follows:

A. The defendant agrees to:

1. Plead guilty to Count I of the Indictment.

B. In exchange, the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Utah agrees to:

1. Make a motion at the time of sentencing in this matter to reduce the defendant's offense level under the Sentencing Guidelines by two or three levels, as appropriate, for acceptance of responsibility if, in the opinion of the United States, the defendant clearly demonstrates acceptance of responsibility for her offense, as set forth in Section 3E1.1 of the Sentencing Guidelines; and
2. Recommend sentencing at the low end of the applicable guideline range as recommended by the United States Probation Officer in the Presentence Report prepared for this case. However, if the Presentence Report recommends a downward departure from the guideline range, and the Court grants the recommended departure, the government will not agree to make a recommendation for a sentence at the low end of the guideline range.

C. The parties agree and stipulate:

1. That Section 2A3.2 of the United States Sentencing Guidelines is the appropriate section to be used to calculate defendant's sentence in this case. However, if the November 2004 Sentencing Guidelines have taken effect at the time defendant is sentenced and are applied in defendant's case, and the resulting guideline sentence is lower than the range calculated above, the parties agree and stipulate to the application of 2G1.3.

14. I understand that if I knowingly violate any local, state or federal law between now and the time of my sentencing, such offense may constitute a violation of this plea agreement. I also understand that the Court will decide whether a violation of the plea agreement has occurred. If the Court finds that I have breached this agreement by violating any law, I understand that the Court may relieve the government of all obligations and commitments in this plea agreement while leaving intact my plea of "Guilty."

15. I understand that the Court can make no decision as to what the sentence will be until the Presentence Report has been received and reviewed by the judge. I further understand that the Court is not obligated in any way to follow the recommendation of the government concerning sentencing matters. If the Court does not follow the government's recommendation, I know that I will not be allowed to withdraw my plea of guilty.

16. I understand that the Court can and will consider all available information in determining my sentence. I also understand that if I am sentenced to prison, such information may be considered by prison officials in making decisions concerning my incarceration.

17. I know I have a right to ask the Court any questions I wish to ask concerning my rights, or about these proceedings and the plea.

* * * *

I make the following representations to the Court:

1. I am 25 years of age. My education consists of G.E.D.. I can read and understand English.
2. No threats or promises of any sort have been made to me to induce me or to persuade me to enter this plea.
3. No one has told me that I would receive probation or any other form of leniency because of my plea.
4. I have discussed this case and this plea with my lawyer as much as I wish to.
5. I am satisfied with my lawyer.
6. My decision to enter this plea was made after full and careful thought, with the advice of counsel, and with a full understanding of my rights, the facts and circumstances of the case and the consequences of the plea. I was not under the influence of any drugs, medication or intoxicants when the decision to enter the plea was made and I am not now under the influence of any drugs, medication or intoxicants.
7. I have no mental reservations concerning the plea.
8. I understand and agree to all of the above. I know that I am free to change or delete anything contained in this statement. I wish to make no changes because all of the statements are correct.
